1. An application is made for "Speaking to the Minutes" of the order dated 17.12.2013. It is submitted that there is typographical error in 6th and 7th line of paragraph 3, wherein it is mentioned that … State Government shall not be held liable if in future any suit or litigation is filed by the Petitioner in respect of ownership / heirship of the said suit premises. It is submitted that in this sentence instead of the words "by the Petitioner", the words "against the Petitioner" may be substituted. Order is accordingly modified and the words "by the Petitioner" are substituted by the words " against the Petitioner" in the above sentence.

2. Secondly, it is submitted that in the last sentence of paragraph 4, which begins with – The undertaking given by the Respondents that they shall hand over the possession of the premises ….., the words "within one month" may be inserted after the words "possession of the premises". Order is accordingly modified by adding the words "within one month" after the words "possession of the premises" in the above sentence. The said sentence shall now be read as - "The undertaking given by the Respondents that they shall hand over the possession of the premises within one month….."

. The order dated 17.12.2013 is modified in the aforesaid terms.
